You don t have to be a lover of poetry to enjoy this excellent book. James brings his prolific poetry style to this appropriately title collection that is sure to strike a chord with the reader. Open up this book and join James on a deeply emotional journey told through the beauty of poetry.Smith, James E. was born March 30, 1949 in Arkabutla Mississippi. He is a graduate, with Honors, from Tate County High School in Coldwater, Mississippi. James is also a 1994 Graduate of Northwest Mississippi Community College. His poetry can be found in more than twenty-five different poetry anthologies across America as well as two selections of his own (Reaching for the Horizons, published by Watermark Press, and Wisdom at the Foot of the Mountain, published by Author House). James is a retired factory worker and well established hobbyist; he is also a member of the ANA with over forty years of experience. James is also a member of the International Society of Poets, a Sunday school teacher, Bible puzzle maker, tax preparer, but most of all a child of God.
