Alas ! for me, I had prepared my sermon from the one in the Old Testament! There I was--no time for reflection! I turned to the text designated by the widow, read it and, without saying a word about my new troubles, preached to the best of my ability. I hope to realize in the great day that all this was but by the direction of the Holy Spirit. Now I wish to emphasize one fact, viz. , that Brother Allen believed that his life was sacrificed by putting himself under the treatment of unskilled people, whose remedies, in all probability, converted a curable sore into an incurable cancer! This is not the only case that has come under my observation, in which death has been hastened, if not caused, by the use of quack remedies. A hint to the wise is sufficient. Let...
