I had always wanted to title a book Searching For Love. It took me 40 years to realize what my heavenly Father wanted of me. During my life with Phillip Keller I grew spiritually. His guidance helped me to understand God s love, and to realize how transforming it truly is. My hope is that all those who read this book, will discover the greatest love of all.God s Love! His mercy, miracles, and forgiveness, are everlasting. Ursula was born and raised in northern Germany, educated and trained as a librarian. However, ballet became her passion, enjoying a short career at the local opera house. World War II brought change; her adventurous spirit brought her to Canada in 1951. After years of struggle in Manitoba, she utilized her training and obtained a position with the Public Library in Victoria, British Columbia. In Hawaii, Ursula married the Christian author W. Phillip Keller, they celebrated 27 years of life together during which time they completed 23 books, a few Christian Best Sellers. Traveling the world together, Phillip used his gifts of preaching and teaching God s word, enabling them to participate at numerous church services and booksellers conventions. The Kellers called British Columbia, Canada home during the warmer seasons. Winters were enjoyed in California, until Phillip s sudden departure to his heavenly home. Ursula, now resides in British Columbia, Canada.
